  - a. Set the example of commitment and faithfulness to Jesus in all aspects of life.
  - b. Able to work with musicians, artists, and other leaders, and pastorally with a diverse congregation.
  - c. Set the atmosphere with praise and worship.
  - d. Usher the congregation into the presence of God.
3. Theologically grounded:
  - a. Able to articulate a theology of worship that demonstrates a solid grasp of historical principles and contemporary issues in Christian worship.
  - b. Demonstrate a passion for Christ and his Kingdom through personal spiritual discipline and public ministry.
  - c. Seek to grow in that relationship with Christ through personal spiritual discipline, education, accountability, and service to his Kingdom.
4. Musically trained:
  - a. Understands music from a variety of genres and generations, with particular emphasis on traditional and contemporary music.
  - b. Experience: At least three years of leadership in public worship, with a commitment to seeking to grow in that area, perhaps through further training.
  - c. Ability to lead worship music (keys).
  - d. Minimal requirements: skilled at playing keys.

- e. Preferred requirements: Able to read music and teach vocal parts.
- f. Time management: Ability to maximize time in rehearsals and worship services that create an atmosphere of worship and skilled vocalist.
- g. Presentation: Have the inclination/tendency to implement uniformity and structure that will cause spiritual growth and display a Music Ministry striving for excellence.
